

BalbirSingh dancecompany

Audition Call – Synchronised, Cultural Olympiad 2012

Kathak & contemporary dance meet synchronised swimming in water-based spectacular

Balbir Singh Dance Company seeks dancers for large-scale water-based production Synchronised, a flagship performance project commissioned by imove as part of the London 2012 Cultural Olympiad.

Synchronised is an ambitious and innovative three-year project which will culminate in a high-profile production featuring professional dancers and swimmers alongside community performers, to coincide with the 2012 Olympic Games.

Balbir Singh is one of the UK's leading choreographers, specialising in a unique synthesis of contemporary dance, Kathak and live music. Balbir will collaborate with former Olympian Heba Abdel Gawad, who competed in the Sydney and Athens Games, in the creation of this water-based spectacular.

Please see website for further details: www.balbirsinghdance.co.uk

Timeline: Application deadline Friday 3rd February 2012. Short blocks of R&D will commence in February. Synchronised will premiere on June 14th 2012, with further performances to follow.

BSDC welcomes applications from professional dancers with a minimum of 3 years vocational training, regardless of style or previous Kathak experience. Applicants should be confident swimmers. Selected applicants will be invited to audition.

Please send CV, headshot and DVD/online links of performance footage to Hannah Myers, Company Manager, by post or email: cm.bsdc@gmail.com - Balbir Singh Dance Company, Lawrence Batley Theatre, 8 Queen Street, Huddersfield, HD1 2SP United Kingdom